"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

AMERICAN farmers received $5,000,000 more for their products in 1897 than they did in 1896. That is why they are paying off mortgages and establishing banks instead of talking politics.

DEMOCRATIC statesmen and orators who insisted during the consideration of the Dingley Law that its adoption would cause an increase in prices of articles of common consumption, will be interested in the following table, compiled from Don's Review, a generally accepted authority, comparing wholesale prices of articles of common use on March 1st, 1898, with January 1st, 1897:

The Washington correspondent of The Courier-Journal says Congressman Pugh pleaded with the President a few days ago for the appointment of Major CARDWELL as Pension Agent, stating that the appointment of Mr. COMBS meant his defeat for Congress at the coming election.

THE LEIGER begs to differ with Mr. PUGH, assuming that he is reported correctly.

The appointment of Mr. COMBS to the Pension Agency will have no more effect upon the coming Congressional race in this District than an order from the Maharaja of Nepal would have upon the Gulf Stream.

True, Mr. PUGH has always posed as the special friend and patron of the Old Soldier, and no phrases have been too hallowed when speaking of him or them; but events have convinced many that his adoration extends only "from the teeth out."

In a recent speech at Vanceburg, in the presence of a large body of Veterans, he said, substantially—

"If I ever go back to the Old Soldier, I want every man to turn his back on me; I want as soon think of deserting the old flag itself."

And yet, in less than thirty days from that time, he engineered a scheme not a thousand miles from Mayville that "went back" on three Old Soldiers and the almost unanimous wish of the Grand Army men of the city.

THE LEIGER begs pardon if it is mistaken; but Mr. PUGH is a professional politician, educated by a Past Master in the Art of Deceit, and all his public utterances, so far at least as the Old Soldier is concerned, are to be taken with a due allowance of salt.

NAY, NAY, SAM!

Isn't the Appointment of Combs That Will Beat You.

THERE ARE NO OTHER THINGS.

The Washington correspondent of The Courier-Journal, under date of Wednesday, says Senator Deboe, Congressman Pugh and Hon. George D. Todd of Louisville were at the White House that morning in the interest of Major I. N. Cardwell for the Pension Agency.

It is said that the President gave them little satisfaction, and told them, once for all, that he intended to appoint Leslie Combs.

The President said he had promised to appoint Combs last spring, and he did not think it was proper for them to ask him to break his word.

Congressman Pugh, so it is said, remarked that the appointment of Combs meant his defeat for Congress at the coming election.

To this the President replied that before breaking his word he would see every Republican member of the delegation, including Senator Deboe, before he re-elected.

There seems little chance to beat Combs for the Pension Agency, and while Major Cardwell's friends are still hoping that the President will reconsider the matter and turn down Combs, there are small chances that he will do so.

FOUR MORE VETOS.

Only One Bill Allowed to Become a Law.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 19.—The governor did not have as much material to work on Friday as he did Thursday, so the number of his vetoes decreased Friday to four and his approval to one. The Corning and Newport members of the legislature will be greatly disappointed over Friday's work, as he vetoed House Bills 234 and 235. The first named was for the benefit of incorporated districts or other municipalities not heretofore assigned to any class of towns, and was intended for the special benefit of Middletown, in Kenton county.

The reason assigned for the veto was that it was contrary to section 59 of the constitution, which provides for local legislation, and that the statute already provides a method for organizing such districts. No. 245 is an act to provide for the creation and government of suburban districts near second-class cities, and was especially intended for Highland, in Campbell county. It was vetoed for exactly the same reason given for House Bill 234.

House Bill 212, providing that no contract shall be made to pay a debt in gold money, was vetoed, because it is contrary to the United States constitution and laws enacted as to currency in parsonage thereof. He also vetoed House Bill 206, to amend an act relating to fees, so that clerks, commissioners, receivers, examiners and sheriffs of Louisville shall report to the state auditor once a year, instead of monthly, because it will operate to increase the salaries of the officers mentioned. Therefore it is in conflict with section 161 of the constitution.

The only bill he approved Friday was the one known as the "osteopath bill," which provides that all physicians or holders who wish to practice their profession in this state shall first be examined and granted a license by the state board of health. The president of the state board of health agreed, however, to examine the osteopaths only in such branches as taught in their colleges, and this probably influenced the governor to sign the bill.

FRANK MORRIS

OWENSBURG, Ky., March 19.—Officers John Ashby and John Merrick returned from Louisville, Tenn., early Friday with Frank Morris, whom they arrested shortly before midnight while he was engaged in making counterfeit silver money. The officers have been working on the case for a month.

SEVENTY THOUSAND MEN, In Killed, Wounded and Other- wise Incapacitated, Is the Loss to Spain in the Pres- ent War in Cuba.

MILITARY STRENGTH OF SPAIN At Home and Abroad, All Told, Is Only About 810,000 Men.

The Cubans Are Willing to End the Strife
by Paying Spain an Indemnity—Just What Amount Would Be Paid Has Not Been Determined.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Seventy thousand men in the number of Spanish soldiers who have been killed, wounded and otherwise incapacitated for duty during the present war in Cuba. These figures have been received in this city recently from reliable sources and are said to be as nearly authentic as it is possible to obtain them without recourse to the records kept by the Spanish government.

From the same source considerable other information bearing on the military strength of Spain and her dependencies is obtained. The present force of Spain in Cuba is as follows: Regulars, 135,000 men. Of this number it is estimated that 50,000 of them are effective for military purposes. They are distributed throughout the island as follows: About 25,000 are in the two eastern provinces of Santiago de Cuba and Puerto Principe and the remainder are in the provinces of Sancti Spiritus, Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio. There are about 30,000 men in what is known as the volunteer army. These are mostly in the province of Havana and are largely in the nature of home guards, corresponding to our state militia. There are 35,000 men who are not effective for military duty from various causes.

TEN-INC BRECH-LOADING RIFLE ON HYDRAULIC TURRET MOUNT.

This style of gun has been mounted on the Monterey, Amphitrite and Monard. The breech mechanism is of the sloped-arc principle and easily operated by one man. The heavy steel girders shown in the picture are the vessel and are not part of the mount. They form supports and braces to the turret, although some parts of the mount are attached to the hull of the vessel. The turret is mounted on a sliding carriage by means of the hydraulic ram which returns the gun to its firing position after it has recoiled. TYPE OF FORTIFICATIONS AROUND NEW YORK, SHOWING DISAPPEARING GUNS AND MORTAR BATTERIES.

The strength of the Spanish army at home and including her near-by possessions, is 100,000 men, which in times of demand for additional soldiers may be increased as follows:

First reserve 30,000 men, second reserve 100,000 men, all of whom are instructed in military tactics and a second reserve which is instructed in 300,000 men, making in all a grand total of 610,000 men. Since these figures were received here recent drafts of 15,000 men to strengthen the army in Cuba leaves only 58,000 men of Spain's regular army now in the peninsula, the Iles de Canaries, the Spanish possessions in north Africa and the Canary Islands.

In the Philippine Islands Spain has an army of 35,000 men, which includes about 15,000 native troops. Several regiments of the latter were disbanded during the time of the late insurrection in the islands, and in time of war, it is said, they are of very little use to the Spanish government.

In Porto Rico there are 5,000 troops, which, in the event of hostilities, could be supplemented by 4,000 volunteers.

New York, March 19.—The Cubans are willing to end the strife in their island without question, but while they are willing to pay Spain an indemnity, the leaders here are positive in their assertions that they are not weakening in the slightest degree and are willing to continue the fight.

Over the Cruiser Amazonas, The Transfer Ceremonies Were Very Simple and Dignified.

Commander Correa, in Handling over the Ship, Said He Desired to Say That It Is His With the Sincere Good Wishes of the Brazilian Government.

CHATEAUX, Eng., March 19.—The cruiser Amazonas, built by the Armstrongs for Brazil and purchased by the United States was formally transferred from the Brazilian flag to the stars and stripes shortly after 11 o'clock Friday morning.

The ceremony was simple and dignified and to the Brazilian officers it was somewhat pathetic. Lieut. Commander Colwell, United States naval attaché, Assistant Engineer and Chief of the Brazilian gunboat arrived on board shortly before 11 a. m. The chief officers of the coast guard and a number of customs officers, all in uniform, were also on board. Lieut. Commander Colwell and his party were received at the gangway by the Brazilian captain, who escorted to the captain's cabin, where they were received by Commander Correa.

In reply to Lieut. Commander Colwell's inquiry, Commander Correa said he was ready to transfer the vessel forthwith and Messrs. Colwell, Roberts and McNorris donned their uniforms and proceeded on deck, gathered near the flagstaff from which the green flag of Brazil was flying.

Then Lieut. Commander Colwell, saluting Commander Correa said: "Captain, I have a contract of sale, to which you are a witness and whereby this vessel is to be transferred to me in behalf of the United States."

Commander Correa replied through an interpreter, saying: "In handing over this vessel I desire to say that it is done with the sincere friendship of Brazil."

Lieut. Commander Colwell, saluting, replied: "In behalf of the United States I thank you for the sentiment." A Brazilian sailor then brought down the Brazilian flag and hoisted the stars and stripes from the top of the mainmast, carrying it in his teeth.

In the center of a circle of officers of both nations, Lieut. Commander Colwell then faced the Brazilian flag, flying from the cruiser's stern, and as the colors were lowered the flag of Brazil was hauled down at 11:15 a. m., after which facing about with their backs to the lowered Old Glory was run up the main.

Lieut. Commander Colwell and the Brazilian officers thereupon shook hands.

The Amazonas will remain in charge of English Roberts and Assistant Engineer McNorris until the United States cruiser San Francisco arrives here.

Great interest was taken in the ceremony, which is said to be unique in naval history, by which one power transferred a warship to another in the harbor of a third power.

Several American ships were hoisted at Gravesend after the stars and stripes were unfurled over the Amazonas.

CHATEAUX, Eng., March 19.—The United States cruiser San Francisco arrived here at 3:30 p. m. Friday passing the Amazonas, after saluting Tilly fort. The band played the "Star Spangled Banner," with the crew standing "Attention."

A DEFINITE POLICY.

The reading of the Torpedo Fittila to Havana Will Be Considered an Act of War.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The policy of the United States has been definitely laid down and it is straight to the independence of Cuba. On the very highest authority your correspondent is enabled to describe the systematic policy that the United States will be pursuing in the apparently vacillating actions of the administration. It is not the intention of this government that Spain's navy strength in Cuban waters shall be further increased pending negotiations for her entire withdrawal from the island.

The torpedo flotilla, now at the Canaries, is not to be allowed to reach Cuba. The transfer of the Massachusetts and Texas—soon to be followed by the New York—from Key West to Hampton Roads, will give the Spaniards a good excuse for refraining from sending their torpedo boats any further in this direction. If they persist in dispatching them, the flotilla, the proceeding will be taken as an overt act of war, and the flying squadron, containing the swift New York, Brooklyn, Minneapolis and Columbia, will drop down from Hampton Roads, which is a more convenient starting point than Key West for such a movement and intercept the Spanish craft in the neighborhood of Porto Rico.

Meanwhile the battleships will be available for the defense of any seaport threatened by an army attack that might attempt a raid on the coast.

On Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Changing the Time for the Expiration of the Terms of the President, Vice President, Senators and Representatives—The House Committee on Privileges and Elections.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The senate committee on privileges and elections Friday authorized a favorable report on the amendment to the constitution of the United States introduced by Senator Hoar, changing the time of year for the expiration of the terms of the president, vice-president, senators and congressmen from March 4 until the last Wednesday in April. The change is made to take effect in 1901, and if the amendment should be accepted by congress and ratified by a sufficient number of states it would have the effect of extending the terms of President McKinley and Vice President Hobart for almost two months. The object of the amendment is to avoid the harsh weather which sometimes interferes with inauguration ceremonies when held on the fourth of March.

Senator Hawley (R.) said Friday that it was the intention to get through congress as speedily as possible the three biennial military bills which were introduced by congress at the department in both houses Thursday for strengthening the military arm of the army and navy. The bills increase to 104,000 men if necessary. This bill, he said, carried a small appropriation and therefore would pass without opposition. Secretary of the Senate, Mr. Harlan, introduced the bill in the house and he is expected to introduce a similar bill in the senate.

It is supposed that Mr. Harlan, who introduced the bill in the house and he is expected to introduce a similar bill in the senate. The general desire was to secure the legislation as soon as possible, and the senate, he thought, would act very promptly after the house had passed the bill.

The house committee on public lands agreed Friday on the New Mexico bill, allowing that territory to take immediately the form of the Indian Territory, which would be entitled in event of admission as a state. The bill is designed to relieve the state from the result of other parties calling the boundaries of the lands now available.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Nothing of special importance will be expected Friday's cabinet meeting beyond the fact that the report of the Maine court of inquiry is not expected before the cabinet meeting. As has been the case at every cabinet meeting during the last month or more, almost the entire cabinet meeting will be devoted to the discussion of the Cuban situation, and it can be stated on good authority that no plan of action has been decided upon. The cabinet will possibly be called upon pending the arrival of the report on the Maine investigation. Every piece of news in connection with the case is being carefully and thoroughly considered, and it is believed that very soon after the report is received the president will possibly announce a definite policy. Until then nothing of a decisive character will be done or decided upon.

Two More Maine Victims Recovered.

HAVANA, March 19.—Two Spanish sailors from American divers have been working on the wreck Friday. Friday afternoon two bodies were recovered, but neither has been identified. One of the bodies was apparently about 40, of medium height, with his right forearm tattooed in a design of two crossed bones. The other was a smaller man, with a red lined collar about the neck. The divers have recovered the ship's service plate and a six-pointed anchor.

Want a Duty on Horses.

PAID, March 19.—The horse breeders of Brittany, Normandy and the other French departments generally are raising a outcry that the fall of prices is due to the increase in the importation of American horses and are clamoring for a duty of 50 francs (about $40) on each horse imported, together with a quarantine and a brand of the animals. The various chambers of agriculture support the agitation.

Court of Inquiry Continues Its Session.

Key West, March 19.—The court of inquiry is diligently continuing its sessions on board the battleship Iowa, and the body of the Maine, which members is quite problematical how many more days will pass before the public learns its conclusions.

Ammonition for Portuguese Fortifications.

PORTUGAL, March 19.—A schooner arrived Friday from New York with a cargo of ammunition and two electric guns for the fortifications at Newcastles. The defenses of Portsmouth harbor will be pushed as fast as possible to completion.

New Law.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 19.—The bill prohibiting the entry into Canada of nursery stock from the United States was Friday passed by the governor general. It went into effect Saturday.

Prince Albert Visits Hartford.

It is supposed that Mr. Harlan, who introduced the bill in the house and he is expected to introduce a similar bill in the senate. The general desire was to secure the legislation as soon as possible, and the senate, he thought, would act very promptly after the house had passed the bill.

The house committee on public lands agreed Friday on the New Mexico bill, allowing that territory to take immediately the form of the Indian Territory, which would be entitled in event of admission as a state. The bill is designed to relieve the state from the result of other parties calling the boundaries of the lands now available.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Nothing of special importance will be expected Friday's cabinet meeting beyond the fact that the report of the Maine court of inquiry is not expected before the cabinet meeting. As has been the case at every cabinet meeting during the last month or more, almost the entire cabinet meeting will be devoted to the discussion of the Cuban situation, and it can be stated on good authority that no plan of action has been decided upon. The cabinet will possibly be called upon pending the arrival of the report on the Maine investigation. Every piece of news in connection with the case is being carefully and thoroughly considered, and it is believed that very soon after the report is received the president will possibly announce a definite policy. Until then nothing of a decisive character will be done or decided upon.

Two More Maine Victims Recovered.

HAVANA, March 19.—Two Spanish sailors from American divers have been working on the wreck Friday. Friday afternoon two bodies were recovered, but neither has been identified. One of the bodies was apparently about 40, of medium height, with his right forearm tattooed in a design of two crossed bones. The other was a smaller man, with a red lined collar about the neck. The divers have recovered the ship's service plate and a six-pointed anchor.

Want a Duty on Horses.

PAID, March 19.—The horse breeders of Brittany, Normandy and the other French departments generally are raising a outcry that the fall of prices is due to the increase in the importation of American horses and are clamoring for a duty of 50 francs (about $40) on each horse imported, together with a quarantine and a brand of the animals. The various chambers of agriculture support the agitation.

Court of Inquiry Continues Its Session.

Key West, March 19.—The court of inquiry is diligently continuing its sessions on board the battleship Iowa, and the body of the Maine, which members is quite problematical how many more days will pass before the public learns its conclusions.

On Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Changing the Time for the Expiration of the Terms of the President, Vice President, Senators and Representatives—The House Committee on Privileges and Elections.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The senate committee on privileges and elections Friday authorized a favorable report on the amendment to the constitution of the United States introduced by Senator Hoar, changing the time of year for the expiration of the terms of the president, vice-president, senators and congressmen from March 4 until the last Wednesday in April. The change is made to take effect in 1901, and if the amendment should be accepted by congress and ratified by a sufficient number of states it would have the effect of extending the terms of President McKinley and Vice President Hobart for almost two months. The object of the amendment is to avoid the harsh weather which sometimes interferes with inauguration ceremonies when held on the fourth of March.

Senator Hawley (R.) said Friday that it was the intention to get through congress as speedily as possible the three biennial military bills which were introduced by congress at the department in both houses Thursday for strengthening the military arm of the army and navy. The bills increase to 104,000 men if necessary. This bill, he said, carried a small appropriation and therefore would pass without opposition. Secretary of the Senate, Mr. Harlan, introduced the bill in the house and he is expected to introduce a similar bill in the senate.

CLEVERLY DONE.

Was the Way the Traveler Got Noddy in This City Last Week.

Last week a traveling man, giving his name as G. H. Nelson and claiming to represent the Kingsford Starch Company of New York, dropped into Mayville to do business with our merchants.

He got along nicely, securing several orders, but subsequent events tend to show that taking orders did not entirely satisfy him.

Among other places he visited the grocery of Mr. George H. Heiser and in due time asked Mr. Heiser to cash a draft for him for $53.

Being refused he afterwards tried the Central Hotel Company and was accommodated with the money.

The sequel is that the draft was returned unpaid.

Officer George Fitzpatrick was dismissed from the police force at Lexington for failing to arrest Magistrate W. J. McNamara after he killed John Keller.

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

To the Property-Holders and Citizens of Mayville. On our morning January 2nd the Washington Fire Company lost by fire their house, together with the Opera-house upon which they depended for support and maintenance. In the destruction of the building there went to smoke and flame the hard earnings of the Company, covering a period of 46 years and amounting to $100,000. They are now without shelter and with a single child in the family to care for their honor. The Firemen of our city have always been faithful to duty in the most prompt and efficient manner. They have been so often and upon many occasions have saved our city from total destruction. They are now so poor and due them, to rebuild their home, and to give them a new and better one. We have a liberal amount secured. Will you be so kind as to send in the amount of your subscription to the Treasurer of the Company, or to the Librarian of the Company.
